

Council Class of 2026

Rudy Altergott

A Caxtonian since 2022, Rudy is a records manager for Cardiac Surgery Associates, S.C. He is a member of local organizations including the Chicago Council on Global Affairs and the Pritzker Military Museum & Library. He serves on the alumni board of directors of Wabash College as well as board of directors of the Wabash Club of Chicago.

Tad Boehmer

A Caxtonian since 2014, Tad is the Curator of Rare Books in Stephen O. Murray and Keelung Hong Special Collections at Michigan State University. Before coming to MSU, Tad was a graduate assistant and project cataloger at the Rare Book & Manuscript Library at the University of Illinois.

Mary Burns

A Caxtonian since 2016, Mary is the Special Collections Catalog Librarian and an Associate Professor at Northern Illinois University. She has published articles in Cogent Arts & Humanities and Library Resources & Technical Services.

Tom Dannenberg

A Caxtonian since 2022, Tom is senior vice president of Huntington Securities. For the past three years he has served on the selection panel for the T. Kimball Brooker Undergraduate Book Collecting Prize. He is a member of the Library Council at the University of Chicago.

Elizabeth Frengel

A Caxtonian since 2019, Elizabeth is the curator of rare books for the Hanna Holborn Gray Special Collections Research Center in the University of Chicago Library. She has been a member of the Caxton Club Council since 2019.